

Headteachers Welcome:

Dear Parents, Carers and friends of Blue Skies,

The last few days have shown us how the weather can impact our positivity; warmer spring days have seen us use the outside spaces with more frequency. Interactions have been positive, and laughter has once again filled Blue Skies.

I would like to share some personal news with you all, in that my wife and I are expecting our fourth child around the Easter holidays. Therefore, it may be that I am not immediately available after Easter for two weeks - unless of course in an emergency!

Have a wonderful Easter,
Graham Richards
